"I love working at DLG because I wanted to help people and I myself have medical issues that I have dealt with since I was a child and that I continue to deal with currently. I can relate to what our clients are going through and empathize with them. I always wanted to feel heard and validated and that is what I strive to do here at DLG. DLG is a wonderful place to work and I'm lucky to be part of such a wonderful team!"
